No cameras or cell phones with cameras are permitted into the Santa Ana Federal Building.

34 Civic Center Plaza is on the north side of Santa Ana Blvd. at the "T" intersection of Parton St.

Parking in the lot immediately east of the building is about $2 per hour/$15 all day.

Handicapped Parking

In that lot, there are 5 handicapped parking spaces at the two red arrows at the northeast corner of the State of California building (#28.) Exit your car and go south (back toward the street) under building 28. Enter to the right/west through the glass doors. Take the handicapped elevator up to the 1st floor. Exit to your right/west and go through the glass doors. Proceed past the planters and turn left/south then right/west. Take the ramp down. The Federal Building is now in front of you to your right. Go toward the street and past the first set of doors. Use the main entrance at the front on the southeast corner of the Federal Building. Use the Flower Street exit when you leave the parking lot since it has an attendant.

Other Options

Parking about a block away at the southwest corner of Ross and 3rd is about $6 a day. The red highlighted areas are some of the parking structures where you can park. They vary in price. On some streets, there is metered parking available.
